Notes for Applicants for P.S.T.A. Courses

Please read the following notes carefully before completing the application form

Applicant form

Fill in the form, making sure that you complete each section fully. Incomplete forms will be returned. Send the completed form to the Education Manager, The Prince's School of Traditional Art, 19-22 Charlotte Road, London EC2A 3SG to arrive by 5 March 2010. As places on the courses are limited, early applications are strongly encouraged.

If you have used additional sheets, please make sure that they are clearly marked with your name and intended course and that they are securely attached to the application form.

Forward the Confidential Statement by Referee form to your referee as soon as possible. Be sure to fill in your name and the title of your intended course before you forward it. Your referee should return the form directly to P.S.T.A. by 5 March.

Fees and Maintenance

Fees: P.S.T.A. Courses - £4,000 p.a. for UK and EU students
 £10,000 p.a. for overseas students

An application fee of £30 must be submitted with the application form. Overseas students will have to pay an additional £10 cost to receive a confirmation of acceptance for studies under tier 4 of the points based system once accepted on the programme. If accepted a non refundable deposit of 20% of the first year fees must be paid by 14 July 2010. The remaining fees are expected to be paid by the beginning of each academic year which is non refundable except in exceptional circumstances at the discretion of the School. No award can be made until all fees are paid. Cheques should be made out to 'The Prince's School of Traditional Arts'.

Maintenance: living expenses – Allow for an estimated expenditure of £8,000 - £10,000 per academic year. This will vary according to the cost of rent and travel. The Jameel Scholarships to help with fees are available for those in financial need.

Choosing a Referee

Since your referee is requested to provide an academic reference, you are advised to choose someone who is familiar with your work and who understands the demands of the course that you are planning to undertake. They should be able to comment in detail on your qualifications, ability, motivation and character, so it may be helpful to choose someone who has known you for some time.

Entrance Requirements and Portfolios

P.S.T.A. Courses: Applicants are required to submit original artwork as part of their application as well as a statement outlining an individual course of study. The application portfolio should present a study of the traditional art form that the candidate wishes to be assessed by and should include relevant visual work e.g. drawings, paintings and, if appropriate, 3-D forms. Candidates requiring more specific advice should contact the Education Manager.

Portfolios should be sent by registered post or delivered (by prior arrangement with the Education Manager) directly to The Prince's School of Traditional Art, 19-22 Charlotte Road, London EC2A 3SG (tel no. 020 7613 8541) to arrive by 5 March 2010. They should be clearly labelled with the applicant's name and intended course and be accompanied by a list detailing the contents of the portfolio. If not intending to collect portfolios personally, applicants should also enclose a cheque to cover the full cost of the return carriage and insurance.

Attendance

Attendance at all lectures, seminars, course tutorials, studio sessions and other appointments is mandatory. Attendance is an assessable part of each course.

English Language Requirements

All courses are in English. All offers of places are conditional until an applicant has officially satisfied the specific English language requirements of the course. Official test certificates should reach P.S.T.A. no later than 6 weeks before the start of an applicant's intended course. Failure to meet the deadline may mean that the place is offered to another candidate. The requirements are as follows:

A minimum overall band of 6.5 on the IELTS scale (or equivalent) with individual scores of not less than 6.0 in the Reading and Writing.
